DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1, 4 and 5, drawn to a product, classified in class 428, subclass 99.
  - II. Claims 2, 6 and 7, drawn to a process, classified in class 173, subclass 1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the product can be used in a different process such as it may be hung from a piece of molding as shown in US patent 1,647,008.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Jones on August 8, 2006 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claim 1.

Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action.

Claims 2, 6 and 7 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 4 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 7, the third word is misspelled. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. Claims 1, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase "and the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "and the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

7. Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no original disclosure directed to a "rigid" hanger. Applicant argues that since the hanger was originally disclosed as being made from a metal such as steel that it will inherently be rigid. However, this is not convincing since steel strips may be made flexible by adjusting their thickness. Furthermore, the term "rigid" is a relative term and the original disclosure does not describe or define this term so as to allow one of ordinary skill in the art to know the structural meets and bounds of said term.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

9. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ernst 6,830,228. The reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, namely a rigid strip bent in a Vee to provide a first leg and a second leg, said second leg terminating in a hook and the first leg being arcuate with a center of curvature substantially at the center of curvature of said hook; see Figures 3 and 10, column 3, lines 47-55 and column 4, lines 22-23 and 45-46.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1772

11. Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ernst. The reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, namely a strip bent in a Vee to provide a first leg and a second leg, said second leg terminating in a hook and the first leg being arcuate with a center of curvature substantially at the center of curvature of said hook; see Figures 3 and 10, column 3, lines 47-55 and column 4, lines 45-46. However, the reference does not disclose forming the fixture from metal. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select a known material, such as metal, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. Furthermore, picture hangers are traditional made from metal, such as metal nails, and therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a known material, such as metal, to form the picture hanger of the reference.
